6th Weekend after Pentecost

Saturday, July 11, 2009
Worship Service—5:30 PM
Sunday, July 12, 2009
Worship Services — 8:30 & 11:00 AM

Here at Faith Community Lutheran... We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

6th Weekend after Pentecost July 11 & 12, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

Witnesses to the Truth

A plumb line is a cord from which a metal weight is suspended pointing directly to the earth's center of gravity. It is used to determine the vertical from a given point. “Plumb line” is also a metaphor for perfection and truth.

In our first lesson, God tells Amos that He is going to measure His people against the plumb line of absolute truth. No longer will truth be merely a question of what seems right to an individual person. God is going apply the real Truth, His Truth.

In our second lesson, St. Paul writes, “In Him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of Him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of His will.” The will of God is the Truth.

What is our “plumb line?” Where do we learn what Truth really is? From the holy Word of God, of course. “You shall know the Truth, and the Truth will set you free.” But there’s a problem today, just as there was in the time of Amos. In our post-modern age, it is fashionable to say there is no absolute truth, but only truth as individuals see it. Isn’t that much like the culture in which Amos found himself?

Does this “individual truth” set us free? Not at all; in fact, it puts us in bondage, since we have no true reference to use for the conduct of our lives. So we wander in a wilderness of our own making!

Robert Mohler writes, “The evidence is overwhelming. Moral relativism has so shaped the culture that the vast majority of Americans now see themselves as their own moral arbiter. Truth has been internalized, privatized, and subjectivized. Absolute or objective truth is denied outright. Research indicates that most Americans believe that truth is internal and relative. No one, the culture shouts, has a right to impose truth, morality, or cultural standards.”

St. John writes, “But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you know the Truth.” And we are witnesses to that Truth. That’s our plumb line. From that Truth comes our mission to bring the Truth to this relativistic world.

—Miles Olson
